Completing 3rd day of Treatment

Angelina Moscatelli, July 16, 2014

Learned a lot these last three days. Tired. Ready to go home and really get some sound sleep. Continued healing so it shrinks easily and quickly.

Happy Birthday...you are getting old girl, but looking fine. I couldn't believe it when they asked who you looked like and I had already mentioned in my early text today that you reminded me of Sinead O'conner.... :) You are doing great....keep it up. You have such a positive strong attitude and that will take you far. Love you bunches, Philly

—Felicia Fisher, July 23, 2014

Love you, love and light and healing thoughts to you every morning from FLORIDA!

—Tony Moscatelli, July 21, 2014

Angel just completed her first cycle of chemotherapy. I am so proud how strong she is. Love you lots....

—Marie Constantineau, July 19, 2014

Hey, it's my Birthday :) It's a good day!

Angelina Moscatelli, July 23, 2014

Lots of introspection here.....the chemo has messed up the technology in my life and I am supposed to be some sort of Tech person, wth! It took 6 days to start to be feeling better. Another two to get technology straightened out. Every day different but knowing this is the process, shrink the growth, it helps. Mind accepts it, mind denies it, then my body tells me otherwise. I am strong and this will pass. Looking forward to it being the size of small seed that can be removed completely. Poof, its gone :)

Sinead O'Connor or Demi Moore in GI Jane?

A Heroic Birthday
© Victor Onaola
Want to wish you a heroic birthday
In the most noble way
Your day will be decked with gold
Mirth and felicity would not leave you cold

Your progress will never be slow
Your feat will be that of a great show
We are going to spread the news around
And let the ecstasy abound

Never will you be the tail
Never will you fail
From this day forth
You will become more than a worth

We desire for you a great wonder

That will make you to ponder
You gave us happiness as you could
Therefore, we give ours, as we should

To you, success will belong
Wherever you go, prosperity will follow along
Blessings from your heavenly Father
Will propel you farther

Nothing will make you sad
Firmly, you shall stand
Moreover, we wish a rapid increase to your bank
And it shall never go blank

You shall find gladness in your dreams
They will come as streams
You will not lose your wills
Finally, you will be as old as the hills

Want to wish you a heroic birthday
In the most noble way

Have a royal blast!

This is my favorite song. It's such a motivator, if your feeling a little blue listen to it, it helps. I think everyone dances to this song whether they admit it or not!

Round 2 is Mon,Tues and Wed

Angelina Moscatelli, August 2, 2014

Had a great week! Now need strength to shrink the tumor again! Envision the wicked witch of the west, having water poured over her and she melts and POOF she's gone. That is what I want the chemo to do to the growth! Thanks for all the prayers this coming week! Last time , my phone went wacko and I could not use it correctly so , patience and I will be back :)

Comments

Sending you pink light Angel! xoxo

—Diane Elhilow, August 3, 2014

I will be thinking of you this week. No worries....you are gonna beat this shit. I know it!! Positive energy and going on with life as normal do better!!! I love you!

—Cathy Smith, August 3, 2014

Hello Angelina,

I am thinking of you and praying for your speedy recovery. To say that I was surprised to hear about your illness is to say I was shocked, and saddened, but I know you and you can put up a good fight and get the upper hand, I am sorry to say that Bob FitzG. took his house off the market.- with all the limitations, no sign, the clutter and the general untidy look, it did not sell, plus the price was too high, even for his market. I got them to extend for a while, and wanted till the end of the year, but he emailed me to take it off, and I did, and that is that. Sorry, but no cigar this time. Can you send me a new card? I need your email address. I send you a big hug and a kiss. suzanne

—Suzanne T. Stenger, August 2, 2014

My prayers are with you Angel, I know you will beat this!

—Deb Walker, August 2, 2014

Angel, I will be thinking of you and sending you love and Reiki. Remember the Mantra.... "I'm melting!"

God's got you!

—Marie Fratoni, August 2, 2014

Your body is probably telling your phone to be quiet while it recovers to its natural health. Do not worry about calls for now....

It was so great to see you in the office this week! Thank you for making the coffee! Prayers and thoughts are with you.

—Lizete Alcalai, August 2, 2014

I am MELTING!

—Theresa Mamula, August 2, 2014

Great visualization!

—Jacki Rose, August 2, 2014

Round 2 is much better than Round 1.....lol

Angelina Moscatelli, August 9, 2014

The trick I think is, preventing the side effects, I found out which ones I get, SO, with prep, I think I did pretty good. Tiredness is a given, they said and will accumulate, but hey, I will rest. Also, great breathing exercises, calmed me down when I think I would get anxious :)

Also, need the protein, so making these great Oatmeal protein cookies with walnuts, cranberries and gonna sneak in a few dark chocolate chips with my daughter later. Protein and blandness can be boring at times, any ideas?

Comments

Angel - glad to hear round 2 was a little better!! You will beat this - I feel it. What about Bananas - here is a website on how good they are for you and some recipes.

—Deb Walker, August 18, 2014

Glad your doing well! Load up on the peanut butter.

—Bob Pollack, August 15, 2014

Olive tapenade on cream cheese and toast or a bagel is good! Glad you are doing well! It's getting smaller and smaller!

—margaret marder, August 14, 2014

Do you like Hummus? High is lean protein and there are so many varieties to try. I love it. I eat it with pita chips, raw veggies, and naan bread. Also
If you eat rice, switch to brown.

—Cathy Smith, August 9, 2014

Glad you have a jump on your symptoms, Angel. You are always so thorough and diligent, and those skills will serve you well in this chapter. Rest is good. Sleep is restorative. Sounds like you still have an appetite so that is good. I see your tumor melting into "nothingness". Love you!

—Marie Fratoni, August 9, 2014

Hi Angelina: hang in there, the Italian way! Lasagna has protein and so does pizza (Mediterranean style). I can bring some whenever you are ready - I promise not to smuggle the vino. :) thinking about you and your positivism. You can do it! Xo

—Lizete Alcalai, August 9, 2014

Angelina Moscatelli, August 27, 2014

Angelina Moscatelli, September 16, 2014

PORT is so much better than the needles. Very thankful I got it. Hemoglobin and Hemacrit low so needed blood transfusion . That will re-energize me :) Staying positive and eating the best I can knowing I need the strength. Gotta do what you gotta do right????!!!! New measurement Oct 6th and will know more. Change is the ever Constant :)

Angelina Moscatelli, October 7, 2014

Got a breather from Treatment this week! Much needed. Scan showed the tumor shrinking but there was this blood vessel feeding it SO, going to get that cauterized, outpatient surgery probably next week. Then back for the final 2 Chemo treatments. Radiation will follow for 6 weeks. Surgery afterwards. The doctors have said there will be no further treatment after surgery. YES! It will be Gone, Baby Gone!

Staying Strong and positive. No other way to think for me. I still have a lot to do here :)

Appreciate all your support!

Don't Quit

by: Unknown Author

When things go wrong as they sometimes will,
When the road you're trudging seems all uphill,
When funds are low and the debts are high,
And you want to smile, but you have to sigh.
When care is pressing you down a bit.
Rest, if you must, but don't you quit.
Life is queer with its twists and turns
As every one of us sometimes learns.
And many a failure turns about
When he might have won had he stuck it out:

Don't give up though the pace seems slow -
You may succeed with another blow.
Success is failure turned inside out -
The silver tint of the clouds of doubt.
And you never can tell how close you are.
It may be near when it seems so far:
So stick to the fight when you're hardest hit
It's when things seem worst that you must not quit.

Much love and prayers

xo

Life is Good!

Angelina Moscatelli, November 2, 2014

Sorry for the late update but here goes..... Since Oct 6th, I have had 2 embolization surgeries to plug up 4 blood vessels that were feeding/entering the tumor and causing bubbles in it. Not good. They could burst. We got them all I believe. It could help shrink the tumor as well. I have been feeling 'normal' again since I have not had any chemo treatments since mid September. Taste buds are returning too :) I have an appointment Monday Nov. 3rd to discuss what is next on the treatment schedule and will post. Here is a link about Sarcoma's. A very rare cancer. I must be special to have it. <http://sarcomahelp.org/synovial-sarcoma.html>

What I am learning is that there are so many types of cancer out there, so many people with different health backgrounds, and so many different types of treatments with different side effects. Everyone is unique. I take what feels right in my gut and listen to the best doctors there are at Dana Faber. I am prevailing.

Go PATS!

A room with a View :)

Angelina Moscatelli, November 10, 2014

I am sitting here getting my 5th treatment, 2nd to last, YES! Playing " I am Happy " by Pharrel and other up beat music. I always ask for a room with windows to see the outdoors and what is going on out there. Today, I see workers on a roof top building , I need binoculars to see the guy with the tool belt on.....nice eye candy, just saying.....lol

I will be feeling well for the Thanksgiving and Christmas and that is awesome. In between, heal and rest. Thanks for your continued prayers.

Love the ones around you.I do. Happy Monday :)

3 Early mornings, nap time, eat, then BED by 8 pm. Good company by my side. All is good. Celebrating at St. Joseph's Healing Mass in Wakefield tonight. What a way to end this cycle. I am blessed. THANKS for all your prayers and support <3

Next step is Radiation at the end of the month with numerous doctor appointments in between to prepare. The shrinking has begun and will continue so it is but a pea size or nothingness.

I have FAITH.

I lay down, then this machine with numerous arms about 2 feet by 2 feet ,surround me and move up and down, take pictures and zap me. I do not feel a thing. Day one is done.I will do this for 5 weeks. I do get weekends off though.....lol The tumor cells will be killed off with radiation. Let the funeral begin for the tumor :)

May you all love and be loved. Life is precious. Enjoy the moments. I am :)

Half time for me and the Pats! They are going to WIN today!
Like me :)

Angelina Moscatelli, January 18, 2015

January has flown by. I am half way through my Radiation Treatments and feel great. I am still envisioning the tumor melllllting away so surgery will be smooth in March.

I am thankful for your words of support, your visits , and for keeping me laughing. As I stay at Hope Lodge in Boston,it has helped relieve any stress I have to be near the hospital as I go daily for treatment. I am blessed by the location of this tumor. I have learned its all about where the "C" is in your body, what treatment you are receiving, how healthy you are before diagnosis, your attitude, your FAITH, your strength and more. It all makes a difference. I see many struggling and others like me, looking forward to being told , " You are "C" free. I don't like the word. That's OK. I want it out of my body.

Cheers to a PATS Victory, and my victory in March 2015. Can you tell I am a positive person :)

Hugs and Love,

Angel

I am First!

Angelina Moscatelli, February 27, 2015

Just got off the phone with Brigham and Women's Hospital and I am to be there at 5:30 am for 7:30 am surgery! Monday March 2nd!

At least I will beat the commuters with the snow :) 3-4 hours for removal. I am ready as I ever can be.

Thank you for continuing the prayers, blessings, and keeping me laughing. I don't usually get nervous until about an hour before.....

I know everything will go right. First ever surgery, first thing in the morning.

I will try to post an update next week. I will be in the hospital for 5 days.

Hugs,

Angel

And the Doctor says: "You are cancer free"

Angelina Moscatelli, March 22, 2015

Yes, I will have check ups through out the year but the Pathology report and the surgeon says they got it all.

Still very surreal and I am extremely happy. It was more like 8 days in the hospital and no strength or desire to get on computer until now.

THANK YOU for all the prayers and support.

I am getting better every day and am working on recovery for a few more weeks but all is good. What a journey. That is all I can say..for now.....:)
